

This is where high fashion meets high cotton.

Farmers don't just grow food, they grow the plants that provide the fiber for our baby blankets, cozy sweaters, wedding gowns and more. That's why crop insurance is essential. It provides the capital and security a farmer needs to increase crop yields, improve efficiency and stay competitive—which keeps our supplies affordable and available.

Support Crop Insurance
www.CropInsuranceInAmerica.org

CROP INSURANCE
Keeps America Growing